Did you think that if the whites were the majority in this country they would come around and try to get your votes by parading and so forth? I tell you no, and three times no. If the haoles were the majority here there will be no Hawalian delegate and no Hawalian Senators or Representatives. You hear the Democrats charging the delegate and no Hawaiian Senators or Representatives. You hear the Demo-Baloka, who works for Achl, then talked crats charging the Republicans with about the Republican party, and warned the death of the Filipinos and the Re-the natives not to join the Democratic publicans are charging the Democrats party, about the slaves. "Fellow Citizens: This is the first time I have stood here as your equal. With '87 the white man gained rights which were not granted to him before, while in '93 the white man took away your rights. So, since that time, we, standing on a different level from you, not blinded by the love of your Alli or other things, have worked for annexation.
